February 1, 2000 LB 175

I will not blink first. It makes things more difficult,...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...but we will survive this session. Can I guarantee that I will lay down my weaponry and render myself unable to fight back, as Gary (sic, Gerry) Adams said? No, Gerry Adams, Gerry Adams, no. So we have a little bit further to go this morning, then we have the same distance to go tomorrow. But I think we're becoming familiar with the terrain now. There is kind of a rhythm here, there's kind of a symmetry, and there's kind of a predictability. And when people have stability, predictability, and symmetry in their life, they don't have any stress, they don't have any depression, and everything is very nice. To use one of those white people's terms, it's hunky-dory, whatever that means.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Time. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Hilgert would move to invoke cloture, pursuant to Rule 7, Section 10.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: The motion is not debatable. We move immediately to the question. Question is, shall the house go under call? Those in favor vote aye, those opposed nay. Mr. Clerk, please record.

CLERK: 18 ayes, 0 nays to place the house under call.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: The house is under call. Would members please return to the Chamber and record their presence. Would all unauthorized personnel please leave the floor. The house is under call. Would members in the Chamber please record your presence. The house is under call. Members, please return to the Chamber and record your presence. The house is under call. The house is under call. Senator Schrock, Senator Dwite Pedersen, Senator Brown. Senator Wickersham, could you please check in. Senator Schrock, the house is under call. Senator Hilgert has requested a roll call vote. The motion is to invoke cloture. Those in favor vote aye, those opposed nay. Mr. Clerk, proceed when you're ready.
